Note regarding the Decrees of the Minister of Finance [*]:

The Decrees with numbers R.A.A. (Regulatory Administrative Act - Κ.Δ.Π.) 488/2020, 489/2020 and 490/2020 concerning the fees for payment accounts with basic features (such an account will be referred to as an "account" below), which have been issued by the Minister of Finance, affect the charges which are marked with an asterisk (*) above , as follows:

Maximum total amount per calendar year

A maximum total amount of €36 is set in a calendar year (€ 6 for the period from 2 November to 31 December 2020), for fees for the following services, excluding credit transfers exceeding €5,000 per transaction:

- services that enable all the operations required to open, operate and close the account,
- services that enable funds to be deposited in the account,
- services that enable cash withdrawals within the European Union (EU) through Branches or through ATMs of the Bank, during or outside the Bank's opening hours,
- execution, within the European Union, of direct debits, payment transactions using a debit card, and credit transfers, including standing orders, either through the Bank's Branches or through Internet banking,

Fees for services not mentioned above are not taken into account for the calculation of the maximum annual amount of €36 (€6 for the period from 2 November to 31 December 2020).

Limit on transactions

When the total of transactions for the following services exceeds the limit of 100 in total in a calendar year (17 for the period from 2 November to 31 December 31 2020), then normal charges shall apply as per the official Table of Commissions and Charges of the Bank for physical persons:

- execution, within the European Union, of direct debits and credit transfers, including standing orders, either through the Branches or through the Internet banking of the Bank.

Credit transfers that exceed the amount of € 5,000 per transaction, are not taken into account for calculating the limit, and are in any case charged as per the official Table of Commissions and Charges.

Recipients of Guaranteed Minimum Income

Recipients of the Guaranteed Minimum Income (Ελάχιστο Εγγυημένο Εισόδημα) under the relevant Cypriot legislation, benefit from zero fees for the following services:

(a) without limitation on the number of transactions:

- services that enable all the operations required to open, operate and close the account,
- services that enable funds to be deposited in the account,
- services that enable cash withdrawals within the European Union (EU) through Branches or through ATMs of the Bank, during or outside the Bank's opening hours,
- payment transactions using a debit card.

(b) execution, within the European Union, of direct debits, and credit transfers, including standing orders, either through the Branches or through the Internet banking of the Bank, if the total of transactions relating to the services referred to in subparagraph (b) above does not exceed 100 in a calendar year (17 for the period from 2 November to 31 December 2020). In the event that the total of transactions exceeds the limit of 100 in a calendar year (17 for the period from 2 November to 31 December 2020) in total for all services referred to in subparagraph (b), then normal charges shall apply as per the official Table of Commissions and Charges of the Bank for physical persons.

Credit transfers that exceed the amount of € 5,000 per transaction, are not taken into account for calculating the limit, and are in any case charged as per the official Table of Commissions and Charges.

GLOSSARY

TERM	DEFINITION
Maintaining the account	The account provider operates the account for use by the customer.
Providing a debit card	The account provider provides a payment card linked to the customer's account. The amount of each transaction made using the card is taken directly and in full from the customer's account.
Providing a credit card	The account provider provides a payment card linked to the customer's payment account. The total amount of the transactions made using the card during an agreed period is taken either in full or in part from the customer's payment account on an agreed date. A credit agreement between the provider and the customer determines whether interest will be charged to the customer for the borrowing.
Cash withdrawal	The customer takes cash out of the customer's account.
Provision of a cheque book	Issuance of a cheque book for payments by charging the customer's account.
Credit transfer SEPA	The account provider transfers money, on the instruction of the customer, from the customer's account to another account, through SEPA.
Credit transfer NON SEPA	The account provider transfers money, on the instruction of the customer, from the customer's account to another account, through a channel other than SEPA.
Standing order	The account provider makes regular transfers, on the instruction of the customer, of a fixed amount of money from the customer's account to another account.
Direct debit	The customer permits someone else (recipient) to instruct the account provider to transfer money from the customer's account to that recipient. The account provider then transfers money to the recipient on a date or dates agreed by the customer and the recipient. The amount may vary.
Return cheque due to inadequate balance	Decline the payment of a cheque due to an insufficient balance of the account to be charged.
Currency exchange services	Conversion of the currency of the account into the currency of the transfer / withdrawal.
Overdraft	The account provider and the customer agree in advance that the customer may borrow money when there is no money left in the account. The agreement determines a maximum amount that can be borrowed, and whether fees and interest will be charged to the customer.
Overrunning	A tacitly accepted overdraft whereby a payment service provider makes available to a customer funds which exceed the current balance in the customer's payment account or the agreed overdraft facility.
Copy of statement	Reissuance of an account statement.
